Abstract

Crime is a negative, complex and dynamic occurrence that fits to the social changes. So in order to fight the crime and prevent it in society, it is very important to know some social disciplines which clearly help to understand the aim of this phenomenon. To reach this aim we must use different techniques which are based on the proceedings pair. The investigations are based on the scene, witnesses, police, criminalist experts, medicine, processes and the treatment of cases in the most correct form through a structure of investigation.

Keywords: Aggravated murder, Investigation, criminalist, methods.
