

The multiform eternal enemy of democracy: despotism

PhD Anila Kashnjeti

Abstract

Since the early antiquity individuals and people have gained the consciousness of their value and strength against tyranny. People have an instinctive, violent, unrestricted hatred towards the tyrant. Every revolution demolishes one tyranny, and it crushes the structure of its supporters, "soldiers". Main objective of this manuscript is the analysis of despotism in a comparative philosophical manner towards democracy.

Keywords: Democracy, despotism, democracy, enemy.
