

Onomastics, studies and researchers (Historical overview, Mirdita)

MSc. Arta Malshi
University of Tirana

Abstract

The use of names and finding, as part of human identity, appear simultaneously with the birth of culture and propagation, change over time, some of them are forgotten and some are out of use, much of it depending on historical - social and cultural circumstances that inhabits the population of every country. Onomastics is a science that deals with the study of names of properties, things, waters. It consists of two groups of names:

many (personal) names or anthroponyms and tire family names or patronymics; the names of the qualitative service, grouped according to the following: icons or names of cities, towns, villages, neighborhoods, etc (Cimohochowski, 2004).

In this sense, onomastics is a raw material with linguistic attention in the language of historical and cultural research and research for the development of Illyrian-Albanian connections (Shkurtaj, 2001). Main objective of this manuscript is the analysis of Onomastics of the Albanian language and history of people.

Keywords: toponyms, anthroponies, oikonims, ethnonyms, hydronyms.

Full Text: PDF

This work is licensed under Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 License.

Academic Journal of Business, Administration, Law and Social Sciences ISSN 2410-3918 (print)

ISSN 2410-8693 (online)

Copyright © IIPCCCL-International Institute for Private, Commercial and Competition law