Dr. Sandër Beci
Constitutional Court, Albania

Abstract

The new Albanian commercial code of 2008,¹ which replaced the State Companies as a basic economic subject with the “commercial companies” as a new legal concept (Borić, 1996, 99), organized the economic life in public companies and limited liability companies. All Articles that regulated the economic organizations in Albania were abolished.

Albania is a candidate country for EU membership and one of its duties consists in the implementation of EU acquis. The Albanian commercial procedures are fast, not bureaucratic and based on EU and international commercial principles. Albania has applied the basic principles of market economy and along with it the Lisbon Treaty, Regulations and EU Directives in the frame of commercial law. Main purpose of this manuscript is to give an overview of Albanian Commercial law in accordance with the One Stop Shop Principle and the EU Commercial Directives and Regulations.

Keywords: Albania, Commercial law, EU.
